January 22, 2025

The annual index highlights the year's most influential professionals in the residential real estate industry, recognizes Andy Florance for the third year in a row

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 22, 2025-- Andy Florance, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of CoStar Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: CSGP) ("CoStar Group," "we" or "our"), a leading provider of online real estate marketplaces, information and analytics in the commercial and residential property markets, today was recognized as one of Inman's 2025 Power Players.

The annual index, now in its third year, recognizes real estate's most powerful and influential leaders who are shaping the industry's future and charting a course toward a brighter tomorrow. Inman's 2025 Power Players include executives and founders as well as innovators and visionaries, with this year's list highlighting and honoring 143 notable individuals from the residential real estate, mortgage, finance and proptech ecosystems.

Florance's recognition as an Inman Power Player is directly attributed to his investment in CoStar Group's residential real estate portals, Homes.com and Apartments.com. 2024 was an especially monumental year for Homes.com, kickstarted by a massive $1 billion marketing campaign aired during the Super Bowl and the launch of an agent subscription product. By the quarter ending September 30, 2024, the Homes.com network had 130 million average monthly unique visitors with unaided awareness increasing to 33%, up from only 4% before the marketing campaign launch.

"It is an honor to be recognized on Inman's Power Players list for the third year in a row," said Florance. "2024 was a year of incredible growth for our residential real estate portals, and it was only the beginning. We remain dedicated to bringing innovative, transparent and in-depth products and services to agents, buyers, sellers, renters and professionals in the residential real estate industry. I'm looking forward to an exciting year and am proud to be doing this work alongside the other leaders honored on this list."
